As pediatric oncologists, we take care of the medical needs of children living with cancer. We see them in clinic and we treat them in the hospital. But quite honestly, their cancer care is not complete until those families visit Cancer Services to receive the many benefits they bestow that we cannot provide through the medical field.

WHAT IF?

DID YOU KNOW more than 4,000 people in this 10-parish area heard the words “you have cancer” in 2011? Cancer Services of Greater Baton Rouge was here for them, their family members and caregivers. We are the only community-based agency that does what we do, and for more than 50 years cancer patients have relied on what Cancer Services offers.

In this 2011 Annual Report, we'd like for you to explore with us a few “What if?” questions.

- What if you or someone you love is among the 4,000 that will hear those words in 2012?

- What if Cancer Services wasn't here for you?
- What if we could do more? Because there is so much more to be done.

We are blessed to be a community with fantastic treatment options, yet when the insurance companies and doctors step aside, Cancer Services steps in with relevant and meaningful educational, financial and emotional support.

For insight and answers to the “What if?” questions for individuals and families living with, through and beyond cancer, turn the pages and read more.

Steve Lousteau (right) with his children Jeffrey and Jennifer.

Cancer Services IS Here. Because You Never Know.

BY STEVE LOUSTEAU

FOR MOST OF MY LIFETIME, cancer was a disease that impacted other people. There was no history of cancer in my family, so I developed a false sense of security that I would go through life not having to deal with it personally. That all came to an end in 2007 when we lost my sister-in-law, Lena, after her two-year battle with breast cancer. It was an even greater shock when only a year after Lena's death, my wife of 29 years, Amber, was diagnosed with stage IV lung cancer. Amber fought the good fight but passed away less than a year later. Impossibly, last year my doctors informed me that I had prostate cancer. My first thought was, "I can't believe this is happening again!" Fortunately, because of early detection and a successful operation, I am pleased to report that I am cancer free and enjoying life again.

So why do I share my story with you? You never know when cancer will strike you, a family member, a friend or a colleague.

The common thread that weaves through each of my own family experiences with cancer is the phenomenal support provided by Cancer Services. This is a great organization that can provide aid in the form of information, financial assistance and resource support. I'm deeply indebted to them for providing me with resources to help Amber while she fought for her life.

While I hope and pray you never need Cancer Services, Cancer Services very much needs you! We know there's more to be done. The 2011 statistics are compelling. Let's make sure we support Cancer Services and its ever growing client need.

There's more to be done!

The 2011 statistics are staggering. Cancer Services has seen double-digit increases across the board:

15%

increase in the number of clients served

16%

increase in request for nutritional supplements

33%

increase in the number of participants in our children's activities with quadruple the number of children with cancer that have registered

40%

increase in educational requests

50%

increase in the number of financial assistance services provided

73%

increase in adults seeking support

Partnering for a better community

Christy Reeves

When you visit Cancer Services, "partnership" is a word you hear often. We are 100% dependent on the generosity of the community, and in 2011—joining long-time partners like Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Louisiana—we welcomed a few new supporters, including Jimmy Johns, Forum Salon and Wells Fargo Advisors, who supported our mission in tangible and creative ways. Christy Reeves, director of the Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Louisiana Foundation, says, "Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Louisiana is proud to consider Cancer Services one of our partners in building a healthier Louisiana. Our community is fortunate to have this organization to provide support to cancer patients and their families."

Employees from Wells Fargo Advisors volunteered at Cancer Services and supported our Annual Giving Program.

SUPPORT

We host more than 15 support groups each month, giving clients the opportunity to connect with others. This year we started incorporating monthly survivorship luncheons and events to coincide with Cancer Awareness Months.

"Cancer Services is a resource not just in books, websites and tangible items but also with human touch, making sure people understand they are not alone in their fight against cancer."

—CRAIG FREEMAN, FORMER BOARD MEMBER

To meet the various needs of our clients, two new adult support groups have been added. The After Hours Group meets weekly in the evenings to accommodate working clients' schedules, and the Single Survivors Networking Meetings are held monthly for those who do not have family close by for help and support.

"Support groups are a good way to get with people who have a similar understanding. It helped me know what to expect from treatment side effects and medications."

—FRANK SPOONER, CLIENT

EDUCATION

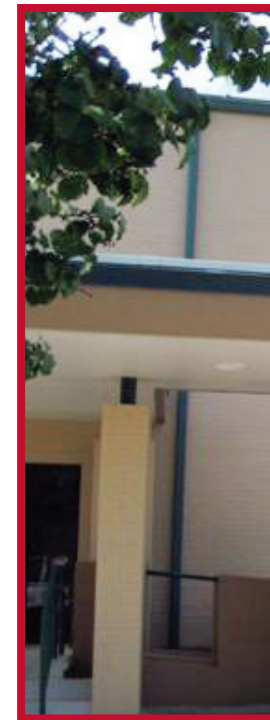

This year, Cancer Services hosted its first Cancer 101 series. Presented by local oncology professionals, the community was invited to hear them speak and answer questions. In partnership with LPB, the four-part series was filmed, aired on their Newsmakers show and is available on the LPB website.

Our Library/Resource Center is a fully functional lending library staffed by a full-time librarian who can do personalized research. The library is open to anyone seeking guidance or more information on cancer.

"Educational opportunities like this are extremely important. Lack of knowledge during a diagnosis or treatment is a huge struggle for many patients. It's important for them to get as many resources as possible so they can absorb the information they need."

—DR. ANDREW LAUVE, PENNINGTON CANCER CENTER BOARD MEMBER

FITNESS CLASSES

Staying active is so important for the health and well-being of survivors in any stage of treatment. In partnership with BREC and The Red Shoes, our three exercise classes: Fit and Fearless, Yoga, and Zumba Gold, meet multiple times a week enabling clients to exercise at a comfortable level and engage with fellow survivors.

Clients after a Zumba Gold class, with instructor and breast cancer survivor Donna Hincks, center.

DIRECT ASSISTANCE

All of our services are free of charge.

Providing our clients with nutritional supplement free-of-charge helps replenish much-needed vitamins and nutrients they have lost due to the side effects of treatment.

In 2011, we provided more than 600 clients mobility and independence through the loan of hospital beds, wheelchairs and other equipment.

Cancer Services gave more than $400,000 to help relieve the financial burden of a diagnosis through prescription assistance and mileage reimbursement to cancer patients in need.

The La Capitale Chapter of Links Inc. hosted the Wigs, Martinis and Bowties event where more than 150 wigs were collected and donated to Cancer Services to help restore confidence and self-esteem for our clients.

"Cancer Services provided physical things like wigs, scarves and hats, but my favorite thing they provided was comfort."

—LISA BOURGEOIS

"The tremendous support, help and love that comes from Cancer Services is really a treasure. I have friends in other cities and family in other places where there is nothing at all like Cancer Services here."

—RABBI BARRY WEINSTEIN

Cancer Services client and volunteer Sandra Cristal tries on a new wig with the help of Links member Mavis Henderson.

WELL-BEING

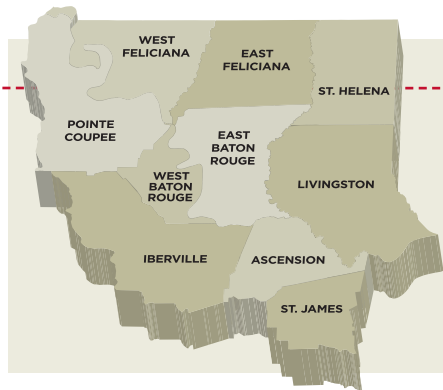

Reiki (pronounced ray-key) is a Japanese term meaning "universal life energy." Not used to diagnose or treat specific illnesses, Reiki promotes relaxation to decrease stress and anxiety and increase overall health and well-being. People seeking relief from disease-related symptoms and the side effects of conventional medical treatments, such as radiation or chemotherapy, may find Reiki beneficial.

"Once Reiki is done, I leave with a sense of confidence that I can respond appropriately to any situation I may encounter. Reiki helps me 'be' and accept, with hope, where I am in my treatment process."

—KAREN FARRIS, CLIENT

10 PARISHES

We serve the 10-parish area surrounding Baton Rouge. We partner with local Councils on Aging, churches, governmental entities and volunteers to strengthen our presence in the outlying parishes.

VALUED

We are proud and thankful to have been a United Way Member Agency for our entire existence. We couldn't do what we do without the support of our community.

"While I don't have cancer, my father did. And Cancer Services was there to make a difference for me and for our family when we felt so alone."

—KAREN PROFITA, PRESIDENT/CEO, CAPITAL AREA UNITED WAY

FILLING A NEED

"As a cancer survivor, the wife of a cancer survivor and a former board member, I know firsthand the importance and need for all the support and assistance that Cancer Services offers for those living with cancer in our community. It's an honor to co-chair their annual fundraising campaign."

—DEE KELLER, 2011 ANNUAL GIVING CO-CHAIR

"As a physician I know if I refer my patient here he or she will be taken care of in a heartfelt and complete way."

—DR. DAVID HANSON, ONCOLOGIST

You just heard, "You have cancer." Cancer Services is here for you in all of these ways.

AT CANCER SERVICES OF GREATER BATON ROUGE, our network of services, partnerships, clients and friends is far-reaching. With our two programs, Direct Assistance and Support, our clients can choose the services that best fit their unique needs to make their cancer care complete. For some, it's our financial assistance to help deal with the high cost of a cancer diagnosis, for others it's a support group filled with caring and empathetic ears, for still others it's a library to help empower them with information as they go on their cancer journey.

HISTORY

The life of a cancer patient has changed dramatically since we opened our doors in the 1950s. We continue to adapt to serve them best, by listening to their concerns and needs and implementing relevant and meaningful programs.

"Cancer Services brought me out of the dark and into the light. Without it, I feel like I would have missed a lot of things I've learned about cancer and also some super-nice people."

—LES TASSIN, CLIENT

ONE OF A KIND

We are the only local, community-based agency in this area dedicated exclusively to improving the lives of those living with cancer.

HEALTHCARE NAVIGATION

If our resources don't match a client's needs, we find other organizations and aid to help fill in the gaps.

VOLUNTEERS

Volunteers donated more than 6,800 hours of service to Cancer Services in 2011. According to the Independent Sector, this saved the agency more than $145,000.

The Godchaux family at Dream Night at the Zoo.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAM

Our Children's Program helps the entire family. The events not only let kids laugh, play and experience childhood outside of cancer, but also give families a chance to spend precious time together and connect with others who can empathize.

Nadia and Paige Julien with Santa at Cancer Services' 2011 Children's Holiday Party.

"I consider myself a walking billboard for Cancer Services, especially their Children's Program. You think that it could never be your kid, but then it is your kid, or your best friend's, or your neighbor's. That's why I'm so glad that Cancer Services is here to help."

—SHANNON DIAMOND, MOTHER OF CANDLELIGHTER PATRICK

Camp Care 2011 campers and counselors.

In 2011, the 17th annual Camp Care was our biggest yet! More than 50 children with cancer and their siblings attended the week-long day camp in July. With the help of an on-site nurse and dozens of volunteers, our campers enjoyed fishing, bowling, laser tag, movies and so much more.

What if Cancer Services wasn't here to do all this?

"Having my younger brother and sister as campers, I didn't feel as sick since I was the one helping them instead of them helping me. It's great to see the kids at camp out of their cancer element and having fun, even though they might be scared or not really understand what's going on. I wanted to let them know that it'll get better."

What if...

What if Cancer Services didn't exist? We hope our community never has to consider that question. We are proud to support an organization that gives so much to the Greater Baton Rouge area, and we commend it for its extraordinary efforts.

For everything that Cancer Services of Greater Baton Rouge accomplishes each year, we would like to say thank you.
